On Friday October 28 at 2:00 p.m. and again at 8:00 p.m. The Cleveland Museum of Art will present ORPHEUS, a French film directed by Jean Cocteau and based on the Greek legend of Orpheus and Eurydice. In the story, which deals with the problems of the artist in the modern world, Orpheus is a successful and envied poet laureate. He is coveted by his own death which appears in the form of a beautiful princess. This film presents a moving and symbolic interpretation of man's contest with the known and unknown aspects of death.
